Rebekah Luedtke is the Executive Director of the Wisconsin County Forest Association (WCFA) based in Merrill, WI. The WCFA is a non-profit quasi-government organization established in 1968 to provide a collaborative forum for considering issues, legislation and policies of its 30-member counties, who collectively manage over 2.4 million acres in Wisconsin. Rebekah grew up in northern Illinois and obtained a degree in Forestry from Iowa State University. She joined WCFA in 2019 after working for the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, Division of Forestry for 14 years as a field forester, regional timber coordinator and as an interagency wildfire/emergency management center manager.
